

To my friends, fellow patriots and lovers of freedom in the Republic of Rhode Island. This is the remedy for we the people of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations that we have been waiting for (see: Bond v. United States).

The people in this State have the right for redress of grievances as expressed in the Constitution for the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantation. See: Article 1- Section 21 states in the Constitution for the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations. “Right to assembly -- Redress of grievances -- Freedom of speech. -- The citizens have a right in a peaceable manner to assembly for their common good, and to apply to those invested with the powers of government, for redress of grievances, or for other purposes, by petition, address, or remonstrance. No law abridging the freedom of speech shall be enacted.

When you sign the petition “Statement of Grievances and Demands for Redress” you are declaring your sovereignty under the Tenth Amendment to the Constitution for the united States over all powers not otherwise enumerated and granted to the federal government by the Constitution for the united States; and you will be one of the people of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations to stand up and exercise your constitutional right to restore the Republic of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations.

The “Statement of Grievances and Demands for Redress”, is to be delivered to the Attorney General, to act upon in behalf of the sovereign men and women living in this sovereign State, basically states we the people of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations direct the Rhode Island and Providence Plantations Executive, Legislative, and Judicial Branches to demand the federal government, as our agent, to cease and desist, effective immediately, unconstitutional laws, mandates, and regulations that are beyond the scope of these constitutionally delegated powers, and to re-establish Common Law Courts and the Common law Grand Jury therefore Restoring the Rhode Island Republic.
